

The Gnome-3 characters (Narrator, Allison, Gnome)

Allison sits in the park, by the pond, sunbathing. A garden gnome sits nearby dangling a fishing rod into the water. Suddenly, the gnome catches a fish on its hook and reels the line in. All of a sudden, the gnome notices Allison, the gnome pretends not to move. She goes up to him to have a closer look. She tells him a joke. He can't keep his face straight any longer and he starts laughing. He asks her to promise not to tell anyone that he is a real gnome and in return he will grant her a wish.

The Treasure Map (narrator, Laura)

One day Laura was at the library when she found an old book that looked interesting. It was called, 'How To Find Buried Treasure'. When she opened it, a piece of crumpled paper fell out and landed on the floor. She picked it up and unfolded it. It said, " Secret Treasure Map. Whoever reads this will end up rich."

Forgetful Genie-3 characters (narrator, Lisa, genie)

Lisa collects old bottles and decides to buy an antique one from a yard Sale. When she opens it to wash it she is surprised when a genie pops out and offers to grant her any wish. The trouble is it is an absent-minded genie and it keeps making mistakes with its spells.

The Invisible Giant (narrator, Abby, Invisible Giant)

There was a knock at the door. When Abby opened it, there was no-one there. Then a voice said, "Please help me, I'm lost!" She still couldn't see anyone. Then the voice spoke again. It said, "It's no use looking for me, because you won't be able to see me. I'm invisible."

Abby replied, "But who are you?"

"I'm a giant. I come from the land of giants, but don't be afraid. I won't tread on you. Please help me to find my way home!"
